Press Release

Liz Stanhope, previously the UK incentive Sales Director for US based Maui Jim Sunglasses, has set up her own bespoke incentive company - The Ultimate Gift Solution - www.theultimatelgiftsolution.com

In an industry that is recognized as being ultra competitive, there is very little – if anything – that sets one company apart from another. Liz intends to change all that by delivering a service with, “no boundaries”.

The Ultimate Gift Solution will not only conceptualise unique gift ideas, it will also source them, establishing a truly creative service that meets a client’s business objectives and maximizes the ROI.

Gifts can be an integral part of any event, adding value and relevance to most occasions, but all too often they are an after thought and add very little except additional cost .

Liz says, “We will deliver a bespoke sourcing service and business solution that provides a client with a variety of truly motivating and memorable gifts.

Our independent approach means that we are not bound by specific items, budgets or indeed brands, as they say, the world is our oyster.

As The Ultimate Gift Solution is not beholden to one provider the options are endless and to date we have created solutions from customized logo pens, eco friendly products to much more bespoke services such as a custom fitting sunglass event, candle scenting your meeting room or launch event, to commissioning pieces of artwork”.

Types of programmes delivered by The Ultimate Gift Solution include:

- Guest loyalty schemes
- Conference gifts or press launches
- Business gifts
- Corporate golf days
- Hospitality events
- Awards
- Incentive programmes
- Hotel amenities
- Promotional Gifts
- Specific occasions such as Valentine’s Day, Easter or Xmas.
